The Franchise offered is for a quick service restaurant under the Food Systems brand, which offers a wide variety of Asian cuisine using the trademarks Asian Chao® Oriental Eatery, Maki of Japan®, Chao Cajun®, or TOBU® Restaurant. Each concept is the same other than the branding and positioning to the consumer as a Chinese, Cajun, Japanese, or Oriental restaurant. The franchisee can choose the name appropriate to its positioning (i.e. either Asian Chao® Oriental Eatery, Maki of Japan®, Chao Cajun®, or TOBU® Restaurant).

The total investment necessary to begin operation of a Food Systems brand franchised business is $670,000 to $1,270,900. This includes between $35,900 to $86,400 that must be paid to the franchisor and/or its affiliate, as appropriate.

The total investment necessary to begin operation of a Food Systems brand multi-unit development business ranges from $700,000 to $1,150,900 for a minimum of three restaurants to be developed. This includes $65,900 to $116,400 that must be paid to the franchisor and/or its affiliate. The development fee is applied pro rata to the franchise fees due.

This disclosure document summarizes certain provisions of your franchise agreement and other information in plain English. Read this disclosure document and all accompanying agreements carefully. You must receive the disclosure document at least 14 calendar days before you sign a binding agreement with, or make any payment to the franchisor or an affiliate in connection with the proposed franchise sale. Note, however, that no government agency has verified the information contained in this document.

You may wish to receive your disclosure document in another format that is more convenient for you. To discuss the availability of disclosures in different formats, contact Biagio Schiano at 750 Florida Central Parkway, Suite 100, Longwood, Florida 32750 and (407) 830-5338.

The terms of your contract will govern your franchise relationship. Don't rely on the disclosure document alone to understand your contract. Read all of your contract carefully. Show your contract and this disclosure document to an advisor, like a lawyer or an accountant.

How to Use This Franchise Disclosure Document

Here are some questions you may be asking about buying a franchise and tips on how to find more information:

QUESTION	WHERE TO FIND INFORMATION
How much can I earn?	Item 19 may give you information about outlet sales, costs, profits or losses. You should also try to obtain this information from others, like current and former franchisees. You can find their names and contact information in Item 20 or Exhibit D.
How much will I need to invest?	Items 5 and 6 list fees you will be paying to the franchisor or at the franchisor’s direction. Item 7 lists the initial investment to open. Item 8 describes the suppliers you must use.
Does the franchisor have the financial ability to provide support to my business?	Item 21 or Exhibit A includes financial statements. Review these statements carefully.
Is the franchise system stable, growing, or shrinking?	Item 20 summarizes the recent history of the number of company-owned and franchised outlets.
Will my business be the only Food Systems business in my area?	Item 12 and the “territory” provisions in the franchise agreement describe whether the franchisor and other franchisees can compete with you.
Does the franchisor have a troubled legal history?	Items 3 and 4 tell you whether the franchisor or its management have been involved in material litigation or bankruptcy proceedings.
What’s it like to be Food Systems franchisee?	Item 20 or Exhibit D lists current and former franchisees. You can contact them to ask about their experiences.
What else should I know?	These questions are only a few things you should look for. Review all 23 Items and all Exhibits in this disclosure document to better understand this franchise opportunity. See the table of contents.
