Business Description: Chillers Microcreamery® is the result of a successful 62 year old, third generation, family owned ice cream business with a unique approach.

The total investment necessary to begin operation of a Chillers Microcreamery franchise is $298,000 - $473,500 (Land not included). Leasehold improvement is one of the varying factors. Purchasing property and building from ground up increases the investment necessary to begin operation to $560,500 - $1,167,500. Both included $22,500 that must be paid to the franchisor due at signing.
