FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT

To protect you, we've required your franchisor to give you this information. We haven't checked it and don't know if it's correct. It should help you make up your mind. Study it carefully. While it includes some information about your contract, don't rely on it alone to understand your contract. Read all of your contract carefully. Buying a franchise is a complicated investment. Take your time to decide. If possible, show your contract and this information to an advisor like a lawyer or an accountant. If you find anything you think may be wrong or anything important that's been left out, you should let us know about it. It may be against the law.

There may also be laws on franchising in your state. Ask your state agencies about them.

We use the terms “franchise” and “license” interchangeably. For instance, we refer to our “franchisees” as “licensees.” Our relationship with our licensees is governed by a “license agreement.”

The licensee will operate a family style restaurant that offers breakfast, lunch, dinner, and late evening services.

The initial license fee is $30,000. The estimated initial investment required ranges from $2,492,500 to $3,684,000. This range does not include utility deposits or insurance premiums. See Item 7 for more information.
