We offer an area representative franchise opportunity to solicit prospective franchisees and support existing franchisees of the “grabbagreen” franchise system. The total investment necessary to begin operation of a new area representative franchise ranges from $316,850 - $496,200. This includes $105,000 payable to us or our affiliates. The preceding numbers assume that the development quota under your area representative agreement is 10 restaurants, which is our current minimum, but your initial fee will be an amount equal to $7,500 multiplied by the number of restaurants in your development quota. Therefore, your estimated initial investment, and the amount payable to us or our affiliates, will increase by $7,500 for each additional restaurant you agree to develop. The preceding numbers also include the estimated cost of developing at least one “grabbagreen” restaurant yourself, which you are required to open and operate as a condition to your area representative agreement.

This disclosure document summarizes certain provisions of your area representative agreement and other information in plain English.
