Through this disclosure document, we offer: (i) a single Store program which is used if you are opening a new Store not covered by a development agreement or renewing an existing franchise; or (ii) a development agreement program which is generally used only if you are agreeing to develop a new market pursuant to a development agreement that includes a negotiated schedule of multiple new Store openings over time.

The total investment necessary to begin operation of a Jamba Juice franchise ranges from $238,600 to $504,300 for a Traditional Store and $226,600 to $458,600 for a Non-Traditional Store. The remaining one-half of the Initial Fee due ($10,000) for each Store over four to be opened under the development agreement is due upon signing of the Franchise Agreement for each Store. relating to each particular Store will be credited against the Initial Fee when you sign the franchise agreement for that Store.
