RE: Pacific Pride Services, LLC
File No. F-6076

Dear Mr. Sexton:

Pacific Pride Services, LLC ("Pacific Pride") filed its franchise registration renewal application on April 28, 2010. It was approved via letter dated May 3, 2010.

It has since come to our attention that the cover page of the FDD contained a clerical error. Therefore, I enclose redlined and clean copies of the corrected cover page for the file.

I also enclose at this time a Franchise Seller Disclosure Form for Roger J. Rolewicz, who is a new sales employee recently hired by Pacific Pride.

Thank you for your attention to this matter. Please contact me if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Timothy J. Bryant

The franchise is offered to companies interested in offering fueling services to commercial customers and provides for a computerized link to a network of commercial fueling sites. The connection to the Network allows your customers to purchase fuel from your sites and other network sites by use of an access card and to be billed only by you.

The total investment necessary to begin operation of a Pacific Pride franchise ranges from $201,360.00 to $961,560.00. This includes $15,000.00 to $15,300.00 that must be paid to the franchisor or affiliate.

This Disclosure Document summarizes certain provisions of your Franchise Agreement and other information in plain English. Read this Disclosure Document and all accompanying agreements carefully. You must receive this Disclosure Document at least 14 calendar days before you sign a binding agreement with, or make any payment to the franchisor or an affiliate in connection with the proposed franchise sale or grant. Note, however, that no government agency has verified the information contained in this document.

You may wish to receive your Disclosure Document in another format that is more convenient for you. To discuss the availability of disclosures in different formats, contact Pacific Pride Services, LLC, 205 Columbia Street NE, Salem, Oregon 97301, (503) 588-0455.

The terms of your contract will govern your franchise relationship. Don't rely on the Disclosure Document alone to understand your contract. Read all of your contract carefully. Show your contract and this Disclosure Document to an advisor, like a lawyer or an accountant.

Buying a franchise is a complex investment. The information in this Disclosure Document can help you make up your mind. More information on franchising, such as "A Consumer's Guide to Buying a Franchise," which can help you understand how to use this Disclosure Document, is available from the Federal Trade Commission. You can contact the FTC at 1-877-FTC-Help or by writing to the FTC at 600 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW, Washington, DC 20580. You can also visit the FTC's home page at www.ftc.gov for additional information. Call your state agency or visit your public library for other sources of information on franchising.

There may also be laws on franchising in your state. Ask your state agencies about them.

Registration of this franchise by a state does not mean that the state recommends it or has verified the information in this offering circular. If you learn that anything in the offering circular is untrue, contact the Federal Trade Commission and the appropriate state authority listed in Exhibit A.
