Franchised Business: Shoot 360 Gyms are basketball training facilities that operate under the “Shoot 360®” name and logos, using our basketball shooting, passing and ball handling training equipment and related software. We offer single unit franchises and area development rights for the right to open and operate one or more Shoot 360 Gyms.

Total Initial Investment: The estimated initial investment necessary to begin operating a Shoot 360 Gym ranges from $745,000 to $2,560,000. This includes the Initial Franchise Fee of $60,000 and Security Deposit of $10,000 paid to us, as well as pre-opening payments of $450,000 to $1,200,000 to us or our affiliate for the Shoot 360 Package. We provide more detailed information in Items 5 and 7 of this disclosure document.

The investment necessary to begin operation as an area developer depends on the number of Shoot 360 Gyms you commit to develop. When you sign the Area Development Agreement, you will pay us a Development Fee equal to $60,000 for each of the first four Gyms and $40,000 for each additional Gym in your development commitment, plus a $250,000 deposit toward the Shoot 360 Package for the first Gym. We credit a portion of the Development Fee to the Initial Franchise Fee for each Shoot 360 Gym when you sign the Franchise Agreement, as we explain in Item 5.

What You Need To Know About Franchising Generally

Continuing responsibility to pay fees. You may have to pay royalties and other fees even if you are losing money.

Business model can change. The franchise agreement may allow the franchisor to change its manuals and business model without your consent. These changes may require you to make additional investments in your franchise business or may harm your franchise business.

Supplier restrictions. You may have to buy or lease items from the franchisor or a limited group of suppliers the franchisor designates. These items may be more expensive than similar items you could buy on your own.

Operating restrictions. The franchise agreement may prohibit you from operating a similar business during the term of the franchise. There are usually other restrictions. Some examples may include controlling your location, your access to customers, what you sell, how you market, and your hours of operation.

Competition from franchisor. Even if the franchise agreement grants you a territory, the franchisor may have the right to compete with you in your territory.

Renewal. Your franchise agreement may not permit you to renew. Even if it does, you may have to sign a new agreement with different terms and conditions in order to continue to operate your franchise business.

When your franchise ends. The franchise agreement may prohibit you from operating a similar business after your franchise ends even if you still have obligations to your landlord or other creditors.

Some States Require Registration

Your state may have a franchise law, or other law, that requires franchisors to register before offering or selling franchises in the state. Registration does not mean that the state recommends the franchise or has verified the information in this document. To find out if your state has a registration requirement, or to contact your state, use the agency information in Exhibit A.

Your state also may have laws that require special disclosures or amendments be made to your franchise agreement. If so, you should check the State-Specific Addenda in Exhibit G.
